City Council and City Treasurer Candidate Photos and Statements Now Online

Beverly Hills, CA – The candidate photos and statements for the Beverly Hills City Council and City Treasurer election on March 7, 2017 are now available online at:
www.beverlyhills.org/meetthe2017candidates.

For the three open City Council positions, the candidates are:

- Eliot Finkel
- Lester Friedman
- Nancy Krasne
- Vera Markowitz
- Frances Bilak
- John A. Mirisch
- Robert (Bob) Wunderlich
- Jim Wayne

For the City Treasurer position, the candidate is:

- Howard Fisher

Councilmembers are elected to serve four-year terms. From within their membership, the Council then appoints a mayor and vice-mayor, with both positions rotating each year.

The City of Beverly Hills Treasurer is elected to a four-year term. The primary responsibility of the Treasurer is to invest surplus funds (the general portfolio) of the City in accordance with the California Government Code and the City's investment policy.
